

VINCENT MOHAU MOTHOLO

CA(SA) | Cert.Dir.

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

A distinguished business leader, with a career spanning over 15 years in both the public and private sectors, Vincent Mohau Motholo is recognised as a respected figure in the realm of finance, accounting, and business leadership.

As Chief Financial Officer (CFO) at the University of Cape Town, Vincent leads the financial operations of this prestigious institution, with revenue exceeding ZAR 7 billion and total assets exceeding ZAR 15 billion, including investments exceeding ZAR 8 billion. With a true commitment to the organisation's success, he aligns business strategies with long-term vision and financial intuition, ensuring solidified sustainability, optimised performance, and a foundation for growth. Through his guidance, he plays a vital role in elevating the university's global reputation as a leading educational institution.

Simultaneously, Vincent serves as a Non-Executive Chairman of the South African Institute of Chartered Accountants (SAICA), a distinguished position that speaks to his profound influence and expertise within the profession. In this role, he contributes to shaping the strategic direction of SAICA, ensuring sound governance and standards of practice, and therefore serves as a catalyst to advancing the accounting profession and driving positive change across the industry.

Having established an exemplary reputation as Audit Partner, overseeing rigorous audit engagements with the utmost professionalism and integrity, Vincent's portfolio of clients comprised of diverse, complex and prominent organisations, including the Mineworkers Provident Fund (revenue: ZAR 4.5 billion), mining and chemicals company Foskor (Pty) Ltd (revenue: ZAR 3.9 billion), the University of Johannesburg (revenue: ZAR 4.9 billion), the University of Limpopo (revenue: ZAR 1.8 billion), Barloworld Equipment South Africa (Rental division) (revenue: ZAR 1.7 billion) and Eskom (revenue: ZAR 179 billion).

Vincent further bolstered his leadership acumen by completing the Stanford LEAD program with Stanford University Graduate School of Business. This intensive year-long program honed his critical thinking, communication, and strategic expertise. He also gained valuable experience in navigating complex organisational change and collaborating with industry leaders.

Able to communicate a compelling strategic vision and inspire others to achieve objectives, he is skilled in fostering beneficial partnerships across organisational, functional, cultural, and global boundaries - negotiating persuasively to secure stakeholder buy-in for key business initiatives.

Beyond his non-executive and executive roles, he is passionate about mentoring and developing future professionals. He actively engages with aspiring Chartered Accountants, sharing his knowledge and experience to support their growth and professional development. Vincent's efforts to empower the next generation of leaders are exemplified through his delivery of guest lectures, keynote addresses and active participation in panel discussions at both international and local conferences.
