

GDPR DATA SUBJECT OBJECTION AGAINST PROCESSING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

For privacy reasons and in certain circumstances, you may have the right to object against the processing of your personal information and not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing, which includes profiling, in accordance to the provisions of the Protection of Personal Information Act, 4 of 2013 (not effective as yet) and the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (“GDPR”) (which comes into effect on the 25th of May 2018) of the European Union (“EU”),

Should you wish to object against such processing you are required to complete this Form to enable us to consider your request.

On receipt of your request, SAICA will balance your privacy rights and freedoms with the rights, freedoms and obligations of SAICA and the public interest to have access to certain Personal Information related to you.

We will endeavour to respond to your request promptly, but in at least 30 (thirty) days, as follows:

- our confirmation of receipt of your request; or
- our receipt of any further information we may require from you to enable us to comply with your request.

Please note that, depending on the complexity and number of request we may extend the period by a further 2 (two) months, of which we will inform you of such extension within 1 (one) month of your request.

Note that the information you provide in this form will merely be used for the purpose of identifying you and the personal information you are requesting and enabling us to respond to your request. The completion of this form is not mandatory for you to make your request, such will however assist us in processing your request efficiently.
